FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Toronto Railway Museum (TRM) Announces Staffing Change

Brooklyn Zalik-Young has decided to leave the role of Communications and Development Lead and museum co-manager to pursue other career opportunities. Brooklyn has worked at TRM since 2018; first as a Summer Operations Staff team member, then Visitor Services Coordinator (2018-2022), and finally Communications and Development Lead (2022-2024). Brooklyn has contributed across many areas at the museum, including collections management, communications, and fund development. We wish her all the best in her future endeavours, and will miss her at the museum!

About TRM

Toronto Railway Museum [TRM] is located in Roundhouse Park, across from the CN Tower, in the heart of downtown Toronto. We share the stories of Toronto railway history. With one of the largest collections of Toronto-based artifacts in Ontario, including locomotives, rail cars, historical photos, and documents. The Toronto Railway Museum's most important goal is to preserve the legacy of rail in the City and tell its story.
